14. [REDACTED] LIAISON Accompanied John McMahon, AD/DCI/IC and [REDACTED] IC staff, to a meeting with Senator Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.), Hal Ford, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and Gilbert Keyes, Staff Director of the Subcommittee on Science and Space, Senate Commerce Committee. [REDACTED]

25X1

[REDACTED] The meeting concerned the relationship between the Intelligence Community and NASA on space related programs. Senator Stevenson was quite interested in [REDACTED] and Hal Ford and I will attempt to set up a briefing for the Senator on the program.

5. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Audrey Hatry, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who asked if all members of the Select Committee were invited to Admiral Stansfield Turner's swearing-in ceremony. After checking, I informed her that only Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Vice Chairman Barry M. Goldwater (R., Ariz.), and Bill Miller, Staff Director, were invited and that they should allow 30 minutes travel time.

6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Anne Karalekas, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who asked me when the Committee could expect to receive the responses to the additional questions submitted by the Committee in connection with Admiral Turner's confirmation hearings. I told her that the Admiral hoped to answer by 16 March.

8. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Tom Connaughton, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and informed him that Chris Aldridge, of Senator Birch Bayh's (D., Ind.) personal staff, had informed us that Senator Bayh would like to see a study on Soviet civil defense. Connaughton agreed to take custody of the study and to arrange for Senator Bayh to review it.

1. [redacted] LIAISON Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, called to tell me [redacted]

I also talked with Snodgrass regarding the statements he had made to [redacted] of our staff, to the effect that he would want to have our Inspector General and General Counsel appear before the House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee to talk about their oversight functions. When I queried Snodgrass about this he said this was a subject which he had only given a very fleeting thought and that time constraints might make it completely impossible as far as covering it in appropriations sessions was concerned. I suggested that if he had no monetary consideration with respect to these activities that perhaps it could be taken up at sometime in the future. Snodgrass said that it was quite possible that he would get all of the general counsels and inspectors general from the Intelligence Community together at one session for the purpose of discussing their functions. He said in any event this would not take place before the latter part of March or the first part of April at the earliest and he would give us further warning about it.

2. [redacted] LIAISON George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called to say that in their review of material in their vaults they had come up with three or four NIE's and SNIE's which, within the terms of reference I had described, we would probably want returned to the Agency since the Joint Committee was being disbanded and some of its files would be turned over to other committees. Murphy mentioned that Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) was expected to submit a bill to govern the redistribution functions of the Joint Committee in the next week or two but that he (Murphy) would be perfectly willing to return these documents to us before any further disposition of records is made.
